Press Information

On Monday, January 25, 2010, at 0956 hours, the Muscatine Police Department and the Muscatine Fire Department responded to the US Hwy 61 (Bypass) at the Hershey Ave overpass for a collision involving a Ford SUV and a cement truck.

The cement truck is owned by Hahn Ready Mix Company of Muscatine and was driven by Guy Hahn who is a resident of Letts, IA. . The 2001 Ford Explorer is owned and was operated by Dixie Kay Swift who is a resident of West Chester, IA.

The 2001 Ford Explorer was northbound on US Hwy 61 nearing the overpass of Hershey Ave when the driver lost control of the vehicle and crossed the median. The Ford Explorer entered the southbound traffic way. The Hahn Ready Mix cement truck was traveling south on US Hwy 61 and struck the Ford Explorer on the passenger side.

Dixie Swift was transported from the scene by the Muscatine Fire Department Ambulance to Unity Hospital where she is receiving treatment.

The incident remains under investigation by the Muscatine Police Department.

The Muscatine Police Department was assisted at the scene by the Muscatine County Sheriff's Office, the Muscatine County Sheriff's Patrol, the Iowa State Patrol and the Iowa Department of Transportation.
