Re: 2013 CDBG Downtown Revitalization Grant Application

INTRODUCTION:

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Downtown Revitalization Program application window is currently open. The Iowa Economic Development Authority (IEDA) will receive application until 11:59 p.m. January 30, 2013.

Successful applications from communities the size of Muscatine could be awarded up to $500,000 for building façade improvements and other downtown revitalization projects. To qualify for the program, applications must meet at least one identified national objective. The Muscatine Community Development staff, with guidance from the IEDA staff, has identified the slum or blight national objective as the best suited for an application from the city. A targeted area of the downtown has also been identified. The staff has held a series of meetings with local property owners to determine interest and support in the application. A total of eight owners, who collectively own, control or anticipate controlling 21 of the 27 properties within the target area, have expressed support for the application. The Greater Muscatine Chamber of Commerce and Industry has also informally expressed support. Muscatine Power and Water has also been contacted about participating in the project.

The city council held a public hearing on the proposed application at its January 3, 2013 meeting; and also held a review of the program at its January 10 in-depth meeting.

BACKGROUND:

The CDBG Downtown Revitalization Program has been in operation for several years. During that time, a number of Iowa communities have participated in the program and have successfully renovated their downtowns. Funding may also be available through various state "green" programs.

The local effort envisions the public funds being used to leverage other public and private funds to create a larger and more substantive project than either pool of money could on its own. A variety of guidelines are used to preserve the downtown's historical features and ensure all work complies with existing federal and state regulations.

The proposed application will include a project scope that calls for relocating of electrical lines to provide underground service. This will allow owners to upgrade second and third story residences and provide opportunities for masonry stabilization and other work.

RECOMMENDATION/RATIONALE:

Based on property owners' interest, the staff recommends the city draft an application.
